ON RUNNING CONVERSATIONS, OLD POEMS, AND GOD TIME

Copyright 2015 By John B. Reynolds (john@jrwrites.com)

Years ago, I used to run once a week with the pastor of my home parish. Then Fr. Tom got promoted to bishop and took up residency in Cicero, IL, and while we still got together occasionally to put some miles in, the frequency dropped way, way off. And now that he's in Springfield, IL, I see him even less, and we haven't had the chance to run together for a long time. Too bad. I miss those runs, and not strictly for the training discipline that having a running partner brings you. I miss the conversation. You run shoulder-to-shoulder with somebody for five, six, seven miles and you get to chatting. I remember waving to our school principal one Monday morning as she was getting to work early and we were finishing up a run, and the next time I saw her for a board meeting, she threw a question at me that made me smile (and that I've never forgotten): "What do you guys talk about?" she asked.

We talked about family and training and upcoming races and health concerns and God. And lots of other things, too. Not unlike the conversation I had the other day with another running partner of mine. Mirek and I met at 7:00 AM on a recent Saturday to go about six, and though we hadn't run together for two weeks, the conversation picked up where it left off. It always does. We spoke about my recent trip to Florida and my upcoming blood donation. We spoke about an ultra marathon he's thinking about doing and whether I'd be willing to join him for ten miles of it. We spoke about a live chicken I gave him several months ago now (long story...) and how the bird just laid its first egg. We spoke also of prayer, and how easy it is to give God a backseat as we get caught up in the affairs of this world. I recalled a line in a poem I wrote to my wife probably thirty years ago now ("God first, and then you...") and told Mirek that sometimes I feel like I fail on both counts.

I think of these running conversations--and that decades-old poem--as I consider today's readings. Poor Job. "Is not man's life on earth a drudgery?" he observes. And, "My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle; they come to an end without hope." We work, work, work, but to what end? This is Ecclesiastes all over again. This is the same notion that inspired Thoreau to write that most men lead lives of quiet desperation. Where does God fit into the conversation when we're too busy with making enough coin to take care of our families? And then, how much do we need? And can we ever have enough, with unforeseen medical bills and other major expenses possibly waiting for us around the corner? More questions than answers. "What do you guys talk about?" the principal asked me. My former pastor and I touched upon some of these ideas when we were running years ago because that's when I was out of the workforce caring for my father. Mirek and I spent time on these ideas, too. Where does God fit in? In today's Gospel, Jesus--after healing Simon's mother-in-law and curing many in the town--rises before dawn the next day and goes to a deserted place to pray. Jesus himself found time for God. Hmmm...

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO
 ENTRUSTED WITH RESPONSIBILITY
 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL 2015

Please Support the 2015 Annual Catholic Appeal

"ENTRUSTED WITH RESPONSIBILITY"

Please spend some time this week reflecting on the Annual Catholic Appeal brochure. Please remember that the Annual Catholic Appeal is much different than a one-time special collection. It is a pledge campaign where you can make a gift payable in installments.

As you review the work enabled by your contribution to the Annual Catholic Appeal, please reflect on God's gifts to you. He has given you all that you have. With these gifts, you are entrusted with responsibility. Your gifts to our parish, to the Archdiocese and to the work of the Church throughout the world should be given in gratitude for the continuing gifts that God gives you.

Each pledge makes a difference because all parishes participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our Archdiocese to deliver needed ministries and services. Our combined gifts not only signify our gratitude to God, they fund a significant portion of the work of our Archdiocese.

Our faith is lived in schools and parishes, soup kitchens and counseling centers, on street corners and in churches, where people of all backgrounds in every neighborhood of the Archdiocese of Chicago are served.

Your gift to the Annual Appeal helps to sustain Catholic schools, religious education, ministerial formation, and initiatives for life, peace and justice. Through its support of Catholic Relief Services, the Appeal serves people worldwide, without regard for religious affiliation, whose lives are devastated by natural disasters, illnesses, wars and famines.

Any funds raised are carefully spent; it is money for God's work, and we use it accordingly. Your contributions are deeply appreciated, very much needed and make a real difference in the lives of many.

After our parish goal of $20,376.06 is reached in cash, 100% of any additional funds come back to our parish to help to fund our needs.

If you received your pledge form in the mail, please complete it and mail it back. For those of you that did not receive a mailing or have not had time to respond to it, please get a pledge form today and return in the Sunday collection. Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response.

YEAR OF SACRAMENTS • ONE WORD AT A TIME

Tell

© Brian Waring

We were probably very young at the time of our first confession. Inevitably, someone—a teacher or a parent—told us, “Tell your sins to the priest.” Ever since that time, we may have been reluctant or we may have been relieved, but we have always known what we must do. We must tell our sins. Perhaps we have never quite grasped the reason for telling our sins. Actually, it's pretty simple.

When we tell our sins, we honestly own what we have done and what we have failed to do. When we tell our sins, we let them go into God's merciful hands. When we tell our sins, we acknowledge the next steps we must take, where we must go.

Finally, we understand. This is not about embarrassment. It's about freedom and change. And that is the work of God's grace.

WELL DONE EVERYONE!!

1ST ANNUAL SCHOLASTIC SHOWDOWN AT COS

Christ Our Savior Catholic School held its First Annual Scholastic Showdown during Catholic Schools Week. Thanks to Mr. Kevin McMillen who provided all the lights, tech enhancements and action, the students in Grades 5-8 competed in several rounds of questioning. What a GREAT way to end our celebration of Catholic Schools Week.

If you know of anyone who is considering a Catholic education, please tell them about our COS Shadow Days. Students from other schools may visit Christ Our Savior and spend the day with the grade level that they may be enrolling. This opportunity also provides a new student with the expectations of the school and to meet the teacher and students in their current grade level as well as the teacher for the next year. Our scheduled Shadow Days are: Thursday, March 26; Wednesday, April 15; and Monday, May 11 all from 8 A.M. until 2 P.M. Please contact 708-333-8173 ext. 24 for further information and to set up a shadowing experience.

In Christ's Love,

Principal

St. Jude the Apostle Women's Club invites you to their Annual Salad Buffet on Tuesday, February 17th. Doors open at 6 PM (NO EARLY ARRIVALS PLEASE!) and dinner will be served at 6:45 PM. Ticket prices are $13 in advance (Tickets must be purchased by Sunday, Feb. 15th) and $15 at the door. Ticket price includes a catered dinner of chicken, beef, mostaccioli, potatoes, rolls and butter delightful homemade salads donated by all of our families and friends. Dessert will also be provided. Anyone that attends is asked to bring a homemade salad in a DISPOSABLE container. There will be a "special raffle" for those who bring a salad. Although this is not mandatory for attendance, the more salads donated, leads to a bigger variety and better buffet.

So, why not come out for a fun-filled pre-Lenten celebration! Take a chance at winning one of the wonderful raffle prizes that dozens of local merchants and business owners have donated.

Show your support by telling your family, friends, neighbors and co-workers to purchase a ticket to our "Mardi Gras Celebration." Tickets will be available in the lobby before and after all Masses on weekends or during business hours in the Rectory Office.

2015 Confirmation Service Projects

Thank you to all those who donated to the Souper bowl of caring this past weekend. We collected $103 that will be given to St. Mary Queen of Apostles Food Pantry.

They are now collecting items for our homeless veterans. The items can be put in the box in the lobby of the Church. Thank you for your generosity in helping with this project. Your assistance is appreciated. Here is a list of the items that are needed.
